TrailView Media, 2014. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: The church Jesus envisioned is not an institution built by humanity, but the fruit of a new creation of men and women who live beyond the human conventions of society and in doing so learn to share life in with love, grace and generosity that satisfies the most ardent hunger for human community. Let author Wayne Jacobsen (former contributing editor to Leadership Journal, Author of He Loves Me, collaborator on The Shack) help you see the church as God sees her so that you can watch her take shape around you in the conversations, connections and collaborations he gives you others. His church is a living temple that begins in the human heart and then grows into a worldwide community as Jesus knits people together. The way they treat each other not only puts God's glory on display, but helps him fulfill his purpose of bringing all things together under the authority of his Son. If you've grown disillusioned with your church experience, perhaps it's time to find out that the church Jesus is building is alive and well on the planet and you are welcome to be a part of it.
